

US/UA Cabin Seat Agreement

We are pleased to offer a reciprocal cabin seat agreement for flight attendants with US Airways. For your convenience, listed below are the guidelines to follow for travel on United under the agreement.

Effective Date: July 1, 2008

Eligibility:

- Active, current flight attendants may travel on United mainline flights in economy within the 50 United States on a space available basis.
- Regional carriers are not included in this travel agreement.
- Crewmembers may use travel for personal reasons only – travel is not to be used for business reasons.

Procedures:

- US Airways crewmembers requesting transportation on United under this agreement are required to make a listing with United prior to check in by calling 1-800-UNITED1 (864-8331).
- Flight attendants requesting transportation under this agreement must check in at any airport ticket office or departure gate a minimum of thirty (30) minutes before scheduled departure.
- Flight attendants will be required to check in again at each stopover or connecting city.
- Please be prepared to produce proper Company ID displaying the word "crew" along with government-issued photo ID.

Dress Code:

- If traveling in uniform, crewmembers must conform to proper and complete uniform requirements.
- Those not in uniform must be in appropriate business attire. Examples of clothing that will not be acceptable for travel include: jeans, beach sandals (including flip-flops or thongs), tennis shoes, sweat pants or clothing, leotards, bare midriffs, baseball caps, shorts.

Baggage:

- Under the terms of this agreement, Flight Attendants may carry on one bag plus one personal item (purse, briefcase, laptop case, etc.).